

DNHG Trip to Atlantis the Palm (Aquarium and behind the scenes)
Saturday 9th May 2015

A two-hour guided tour of this iconic attraction has been arranged for Saturday 9th May 2015. The tour which starts at 8 a.m sharp will be guided by specialists. The trip will include a guided safari of the Lost Chambers, Fish Hospital, Ambassador Plant Room, Food Preparation area and hopefully the Marine Mammal facility and other behind the scenes areas.

Cost per person is Dh30/-

Parking for our participants would be on the right side after the entrance to Lost Chambers. Meeting point is at the entrance to the Lost Chambers @ 8a.m.sharp
The trip is limited to 30 participants.

Would those interested to register on a first-come basis please send an email with the names of all participants and cell phone numbers to Pradeep Radhakrishna on wgarnet@eim.ae

Please note that DNHG Field Trips are meant for Fully Paid-Up DNHG Members only. Trips are at a member's risk and liability. These are only co-ordinated or facilitated by DNHG Members on a voluntary and honorary basis. We are also constantly looking for Field Trip Leaders so if you or anyone known to you can lead a trip which may be interesting for DNHG Members please contact one of the Field trip Co-ordinators or DNHG Committee Members.