

DNHG Trip to the Dubai Fish Market
Saturday 3rd May 2014

There will be a walking trip to to the Dubai fish market on Saturday, May 3rd. Our purpose is it to visit the old fish market one more time before it is getting too hot and before it will be replaced by a new, much more modern one.

Meeting point will be at 5 p.m. outside Al Ghubaiba Metro Station.

Please make sure you leave on time as you will have to change trains at Bur Juman Station and the Metro will be very busy.

From the Metro station we will walk along the Heritage Village and from there through the pedestrian tunnel under the Creek to the fish market. Please wear comfortable walking shoes.

At the fish market we will stay for about an hour. This will give everybody the opportunity to take lots of photos and buy fish or fruits and vegetables if you want. I suppose we will again see many sharks lined up outside the market. ...

From the fish market we will then head towards the gold souk, then the spice souk and finally take an abra back to the Bur Dubai side.

Maximum number of people is 25.

Would those interested please email Martina Fella at martina_fella@hotmail.com